CUTTER INCIDENT

We would like to take a moment to endorse all vaccines as well as the entire pharmaceutical industry. Pharmaceutical companies have never done anything wrong, and to suggest anything short of that is anti-science. If you think it's ok to criticize or be skeptical of vaccines, then you probably think that the Earth is flat, climate change isn't real, and the Holocaust didn't happen. Anyways, the first polio vaccines in history to be sold to the public were made by Cutter Laboratories back in the 1950s. The vaccine contained live poliovirus said to be "inactive" so that the immune system could easily defend against it. The vaccine straight up gave people polio, even though the US government said it was safe for public use. What the H?!? Thanks, science!!!!!

RHODESIA

7

Long ago in the cradle of civilizations once rested the land of Rhodesia. This nation established by the British in South Africa could pass off to anyone as a western Nation if you showed them the photos of Rhodesian commerce, stability, and modernity. During the period of decolonization, however, the black majority rose up and cleansed the white ruling minority class through genocide and expulsion, and eventually, the experienced white farming class had their land and businesses seized under the African rebel government. The result of this was the creation of Zimbabwe, where leadership was put into the hands of the native black population. About 45 years have passed since then, and Zimbabwe has experienced nothing but poverty, disease, and instability. It's become so bad that Zimbabwe's PM Robert Mugabe spent years pleading for the experienced white farmers to return. Damn, this must all be white colonialism's fault.

The Boomer Problem

By Whigg R. Bonix

POP QUIZ! Can you answer this question?

What group of people inherited the strongest and most effic had ever seen which allowed them to buy a brand new car, a family all by the age of 25? If you guessed "Baby Boomers", win a lifetime pay of mere pennies so your parents/grandparents can finally buy their shitty 1970s wet dream car...

What is the greatest evil that the world has ever experienced? Is it War? Genocide? Guatemalans? Would it blow your mind if I told you that the Baby Boomer generation has caused more damage to the world than these three horrors combined? Well unfortunately for you young autistic fucktards that have the permanent taste of fluoride in your mouth, it's true. The decay of the West at the hands of the Boomers goes back many years, so let's start. (SIDE NOTE: The Boomer generation also includes Generation X. Your generation doesn't exist. You're also fucking Boomers.)

The Baby Boomers were born in the aftermath of World Wa economic stability and a market designed by Americans for t Boomers, who enjoyed these pleasures that their fathers and global conflicts in order to establish, decided to shit into the they were the first generation to be born with a TV in the ho to this day), the Boomers were successfully groomed from th their young adult lives, Boomers unknowingly became the gu psychological operation in human history: the 1960s. The Final Solution

1. Repeal voting rights for Baby Boomers.
2. Cut off all their Social Security benefits.
3. Take away their driver's licenses.
4. Do not allow them to own property.
5. Ban Boomers from entering politics.
6. Forcefully relocate all Boomers into retirement homes.
7. Restrict media consumption: the only allowed media they c
